

SILICON PLAINS &

Case Study

Who is Logan County

Logan County is located in North East Colorado and boasts a population of over 22,000. Logan County government has over 200 employees and 8 locations all working together to better serve and protect their community.

Would You Recommend Silicon Plains To Other County Governments?

"I would say do not be afraid to go with Silicon Plains, we have had a great experience. Everyone is easy to work with and we rely on them to make the decisions since they are the IT professionals."

-- Finance Director/Budget Officer
Logan County

CHALLENGES

When Logan County began working with Silicon Plains they had a few things they needed addressed. Upgraded hardware across the county, an expanded and all inclusive network upgrade that would tie the county together, and additional leadership from IT professionals.

SILICON PLAINS' SOLUTIONS

Silicon Plains manages the technology infrastructure for Logan county, and completed a full network and hardware upgrade and standardization program for the county and we maintain it to this day.

Network Upgrade

Hardware Maintenance

IT Leadership

BENEFITS

1

Network Upgrade

Upon starting with Silicon Plains Logan County underwent a comprehensive Network refresh both in terms of hardware and in managing how the county was tied together technologically.

2

Hardware Maintenance

Silicon Plains managed Logan County's hardware infrastructure helping them operate on a consistent hardware revitalization schedule.

3

IT Leadership

Silicon Plains provides the necessary IT leadership for Logan County, meeting with them every 90 days or more often to ensure Logan County is following IT and cybersecurity best practices.

SILICON PLAINS

2219 E. Main Ave, Bismarck ND, 58501

www.siliconplains.net

sales@siliconplains.net